The Mini-Language Lessons Program guidelines require that all instructors to obtain and maintain a criminal record check. Instructors who have taught in the program before need to renew their criminal record check every three years. SOHL will provide a volunteer letter to take to the police, however, in some instances a fee will be charged for performing the criminal record check.

Please read the Heritage Language Instructor Guidelines for more information about expectations and rules about the program.

Please complete the application and return it to the SOHL Office via email, mail or fax.

If you have any questions or are experiencing any difficulties, please contact the Program Coordinator by phone at 306.780.9478, or by email at sohlcoordinator@sasktel.net.
