Deadline to Submit: 12 Noon, January 25, 2019

SOHL's annual Heritage Language Day Celebration in Regina will be taking place at the Multipurpose Room at the Riddell Center at the University of Regina on Saturday, February 9, 2019 starting at 1:00 pm and concluding at 2:30pm. The program will consist of a number of multicultural performances, as well as greetings/speeches by special guests and a reception. Please note that all music, if applicable, will have to be provided to SOHL electronically at least one week prior to the performance date.

Please also note that submitting a performance proposal does not guarantee a place in the program. Though we try very hard to accommodate everyone, if a high number of proposals are received, SOHL will have to limit the number of participants.
